Urgent plea for $78,000 by March 1We're in the final stretch to free us from clutches of Digital Cartel*

Would it be all right to tell you I'm nervous? I'm a little stressed out because I think we're going to fall short of our goal, unless I find the right words to soften more hearts.

We're down to nine days – counting March 1, which I previously wasn't counting – to raise the final $78,000 we need to meet our urgent financial needs. Keep in mind, this is the minimum we figured we need to supplement our ad revenue shortfall. I hope and pray I am writing the right words.

Don't get me wrong. I don't blame our subscribers. You have been more than generous. If someone had told me seven weeks ago that WND's readers, if asked, would come through with $222,000 in that time, I would have fainted. Frankly, I think what you've done already is nothing short of miraculous. It also warms my heart that you feel our work is important and not in vain.

Just so there is no mistake, the only other option we have is getting down on our knees in surrender to the Digital Cartel – otherwise known as Google-Facebook-Twitter-Amazon-et al. But that growing threat to freedom would rather see us die a humiliating public death.

So again, I just need to ask the tough question: Can you imagine America without the independent media during the critical 2018 election cycle – or with a weakened independent media that is struggling to stay alive?

You know what that will mean. It will very likely mean the hapless Republican Party will lose the Congress – making it impossible for President Trump to carry out his plans to restore American greatness, secure our borders, and continue the economic recovery.

And as I have said before, we all know the very first item on the Democrats' agenda should they retake Congress will be to impeach President Trump.

That's how big this fight is. But WND is not just about the 2018 election. We're about changing the culture of America for the better, about restoring the magnificent pro-American, free-market, constitutional, Judeo-Christian system our founders intended. We're about saving America's soul and restoring its inner greatness.

If you haven't joined our fight yet wholeheartedly, the time is now. If we fall short of our goal in 10 days, prospects are that much tougher for us in March. We're counting on you.

Here's how you can help us reach the goal:

1. Would you consider making a monthly contribution to help our efforts – even if it's just \$3 or \$5? If only a few thousand committed to doing this, we could turn off the urgent fundraising email-a-thon and focus our full attention on what you expect from us – the best content online, in print, in books and in movies. Hundreds have already responded and we are so appreciative.
2. We also need and welcome one-time donations of anywhere from \$3 to \$5,000. Contributions of $25, $50 or $100 make up the bulk of the gifts we've received in recent weeks – probably 90 percent! Besides donating online, you can also donate by calling our customer service department at 1-800-4-WND-COM or mailing your donation to WND, P.O Box 1627, Medford, OR 97501. Words cannot even express the gratitude we feel for those. I just want to give everyone a hug for those, but you've got to be careful about expressions like that these days.
3. One of the ways the Digital Cartel has attacked us and the rest of the independent media is by drying up advertising revenues. While anti-Christian and so-called "progressive" activists launch boycotts and other attacks, Google, Facebook and the Silicon Valley Vampires use their monopoly power to strangle the voices of liberty and God's love and sovereignty. So here's a way you can counter them. Years ago, we noticed many people asking for an advertising-free version of WND supported by subscribers. We created one. It's called WND

Weekly. This digital weekly magazine contains nearly all the original content we produce daily and we deliver it to your inbox Sunday – repackaged with attractive illustrations, images and graphics – kind of like the old-fashioned Sunday paper delivered to your door. We provide that service for only $3.99 a month or for an annual price of just $29.99. You can even sample it for free to see if it's for you.

4. Have you checked out our online WND Superstore recently? This was once WND's No. 1 source of revenue – for years! But because of the “Amazonization” of our culture, fewer people think of any other place to go for their books, Bibles, movies, gifts, preparedness needs and even unique products not carried at Amazon. Check out the handy links above to introduce you to the WND Superstore – or to re-introduce you to it.
5. If you don't already subscribe to our monthly Whistleblower magazine – available in both print and digital versions – you don't know what you're missing. Unlike any newsmagazine you've ever seen, every issue of Whistleblower is an incredible journey into one single topic of tremendous importance to you – a topic that, as a rule, is either ignored or twisted beyond recognition by the rest of the media. Whistleblower connects the dots and illuminates where today's events are headed, what they really mean, and what they portend for readers. It's a must-read.
6. Lastly, for individuals and foundations willing to make contributions larger than $5,000, you can mail those to us at WND, P.O. Box 1627, Medford, Oregon 97501. I urge you to send me an email at jfarah@wnd.com and I'd be happy to discuss it with you personally. You can also call one of our customer service representatives (1-800-4-WND-COM or 1-800-496-3266) with your phone number and I will get back to you personally. We even have affiliated non-profit institutions we can tell you about that can ensure your targeted project-oriented contribution is tax-deductible. Would you like to sponsor more hard-hitting investigative reporting into corruption, fraud, waste and abuse in government? We can do it. Would you like to support the marketing effort of one of our books or movies? We can do that, too. If there's something you'd like WND to do, it can likely be arranged.

Thank you for your attention, your prayers, your expressions of love, your encouragement and your financial sacrifices. Let's fight the good fight together!

And may God bless you all
