Mission accomplished! Operation 'Save WND' successful

Now let me tell you about some good news for the future

Dear friends of WND:

Praise God! You are friends indeed. You answered our cries of desperation when we were facing a very real existential threat. And your love for the mission of WND came shining through in your generosity.

Yes, we asked for a total of $200,000 in support and you provided it. In January, we asked for $100,000 and you provided that.

You have provided the cushion we needed to pick ourselves up by our bootstraps so we could fight another day.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Now it's time for me to let you know about some exciting plans for the future – even if I can't provide the details today.

- We are working with a non-profit foundation through which we can more efficiently produce the kind of content that makes WND unique as an independent media pioneer and a Christian one at that. Once we've got everything set up – and we hope that is soon – we'll have a way for future contributions to supplement WND's content to be tax-deductible.
- We are developing a new revenue stream that is very exciting – even revolutionary, I would say. And that's what it takes for independent media to survive and flourish when they are playing on an uneven playing field designed that way purposely by the Internet Cartel to make our work next to impossible. More on that to come shortly.

Right now, it is mostly the time to express our gratitude to all of you who have helped us meet our challenge.

I will just ask one more favor of you in this email. Please remember us, even though we are not pitching you daily with a donation campaign. We are still fighting an uphill battle. We can't even see all of what lies ahead. Pray for us. And, please, when you're able and the Spirit leads, please commit to a monthly donation in any amount – even if it is just \$3. Again, if everyone receiving this email did that, our annual budget would be expanded more than three times what it is today. We wouldn't need Google ads. Facebook would become irrelevant to us. We could hire dozens more journalists like those you have come to appreciate at WND.

Just imagine what \$5 or \$10 a month would mean.

You have raised our spirits. You have answered our call. We thank God for you and bless you.
